"WHEN LOVE IS YOUNG"

One-Reel Universal Comedy

A RTHUR'S new tuxedo arrives in time for him to wear it to a dance, and he ruins his big brother's razor while shaving the first hair of his embryo mustache. While picking flowers (from her garden) to present his girl, his rival's dog chases him and rips his dress pants to tatters, chasing him into a pond.

Rushing home, he swipes his brother's dinner suit and returns for Olive, taking her to the dance, to his rival's chagrin. His brother, angry at the "borrowing" of his evening clothes, arrives as Arthur is proposing, kidnaps him and forcibly regains his clothes. Arthur, in panic, dons a nightie as he hears girls approaching the room wherein he is hiding in scant attire. He beats a hasty retreat and lands—in a crowded ballroom. He makes his escape, however, beats up his rival, commandeers his clothes, and wins the girl.
